

ORCID Workshop for Researchers

Update your ORCID Record to Save Time and Get Credit in Funding Applications, Publications, and Research Reporting

- When: Wed. Feb. 22, 2023 at 12pm-1pm Eastern/ 11am-12pm Central/ 10am-11am Mountain/ 9am-10am Pacific
- Registration Link: ORCID Workshop for Researchers

Getting and using your free ORCID iD and ORCID record can help you save time and get credit for your work in funding, publishing, and research reporting workflows. Funding organizations, publishers, and research institutions are increasingly requiring or asking for ORCID iDs from researchers, so this workshop will help you make sure you are ahead of the game.

In this workshop, we will cover:

- An overview of the benefits of ORCID for researchers
- How ORCID can help you save time throughout the research landscape
- Tips and tricks for keeping your ORCID record up-to-date

No prior experience with ORCID necessary. The session recording will be sent to all who register. See you there!

Speaker Info:

This session will be led by Paolo P. Gujilde, ORCID Community Specialist at Lyrasis. Paolo started his work in academic libraries in research services and transitioned into collection strategies and scholarly communications. He is actively involved in professional organizations especially serving and advocating for equity, diversity, and inclusion in library services.

Learn more about Paolo :  <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-9758-5740>

Presented by the ORCID US Community, led by Lyrasis (<https://www.lyrasis.org/>) in partnership with the Big Ten Academic Alliance (<https://btaa.org/>), the Greater Western Library Alliance (<https://www.gwla.org/>), the NorthEast Research Libraries (<http://nerl.org/>), and the Health Research Alliance (<https://www.healthra.org/>).

ORCID
Connecting Research and Researchers

Consortium Member Organization

 Lyrasis[®]

Draft Agenda:

- Intro to ORCID iD and ORCID record
- Benefits of ORCID:
 - Your ORCID iD distinguishes you from others
 - Your ORCID iD persists over time
 - Your ORCID record can bolster your digital identity
 - Your ORCID record can save you time when you have to fill out forms
- ORCID in the research landscape (Why it's important to keep your ORCID record info up to date):
 - Funders are asking for or requiring ORCID iDs
 - Publishers asking for or requiring ORCID iDs
 - Research institutions are also using ORCID
 - ORCID usage varies between organizations, so look for the ORCID iD icon so you can:
 - Sign into systems using ORCID
 - Import info from ORCID - pre-filling forms
 - Send info to ORCID - keep everything in one place (enter once, re-use often)
- how info gets added to your ORCID record:
 - manually yourself
 - manually trusted individual
 - search & link
 - automatically via trusted organizations
- tips for updating ORCID records:
 - Works - S&L, DOIs - Crossref & DataCite, BibTex import (BibTex export)
 - Funding - S&L
 - Affiliations - use dropdown
 - Employment
 - Education
 - Qualifications
 - Invited positions
 - Distinctions
 - Membership
 - Service
 - Peer Review - If your peer review process asks you for an ORCID iD, they may be able to add your peer review information to your ORCID record for you. Or, you can try using Web of Science - Publons.
 - Biographical info - alternate names, email addresses, keywords, bio, etc. - helps to distinguish you even more.
- Look for the ORCID icon - use your ORCID iD and ORCID data whenever possible!